

Training-seminars for Environmental NGOs

The training-seminars were conducted in all participant cities for representatives of NGOs. On 18 June 2014, the training-seminar was conducted in Ararat for NGO representatives. The number of participants was 33 people in all.

On 25 June 2014 the training-seminar was conducted in Kutaisi. The training-seminar was attended by representatives of NGOs acting in Kutaisi. The number of participants was 30 people in all.

As a result of conducted trainings, 75 representatives of local NGOs from selected cities were informed about the modern practice of waste management, knowledge and abilities of waste selective collection, and environment protection development.